Kevin Hillstrom (206-853-8278 ... kevinh@minethatdata.com)

Hi everybody – Kevin here. Thank you for participating in CRS. We’ve come to the end of a long season. Soon, some of our neighbors will head north, blistering heat will consume those who stay, and we will work collaboratively to dry (hopefully) two sets of pickleball courts at 6:00am following Monsoon Thunderstorms.

Field of Dreams

Baseball season is underway, which means those of you who watch linear television will be re-introduced to the 1989 movie “Field of Dreams”. I lived in Iowa in 1989 when the film was released. You don’t hear a movie theater sound like a basketball arena very often, but when the phrase “Is This Heaven?” was followed by “No ... it’s Iowa”, the theater I watched the movie at in Ames sounded a lot like Hilton Coliseum.

Back in 2014 I had a corgi named Bert. He was at the end of his life and his heart was failing. Without any real say in the matter, he joined us as we embarked on a cross-country trip. We stopped in Dyersville, where Bert got to run the bases on the Field of Dreams. He took full advantage of his opportunity.

There are several overlapping plots in the film. One of the main plotlines features the 1919 Black Sox, a story of redemption for a team that allegedly threw the World Series for a little bit of money. This team was given an opportunity, and they took advantage of their opportunity. Similarly, our CRS players took advantage of an opportunity, regardless of the outcome. I am especially proud of CRS players who were not promoted. It takes courage to go through what you went through.

Another plotline involves Ray Kinsella (played by Kevin Costner). He was mocked and scorned for plowing under perfectly good farmland for the baseball diamond used by the Black Sox and other players. His wife was criticized in a PTA meeting for being associated with a moron. His brother-in-law yells at him for being an idiot. Eventually, Ray wonders out loud if the endeavor was worth it: <https://youtu.be/5YrvXPI2Cdc?t=22>.

Hard work that benefits a community is always worth it.

Thank you to all 575 players who participated in CRS this season. About 34% of our players earned a promotion, which means that CRS proved to be a hard route to promotion. Promotions were down at least 25% from last year's total.

A special thanks to those who made CRS happen each week, including John Pihl, Tammy Dana-Bashian, Chris Stelplugh, Bill Lichtenberger, Val Braden, Vicki Ballew, Lynn Manns, Linda Tompkins, Mike Adkins, and many others. Also thank you to our departing Board for taking a chance on a process that rewarded players who won games. Thank you to all who were supportive of our CRS players.

We have five promotions this week: Bob Thompson, Coreen Miglietto, Judi Williams, Nancy Anderson, and Rob McGarva. Combined, these players played 244 games before earning a promotion.
